The Clean,
Wholesome Smell of

WRIGHT'S
Coal Tar
SOAP

is, in itself,
a recommendation,
and the freshness felt after using is really exhilarating.

*Local Time.

THE CALENDARS.

The Jewish is in accordance with the system arranged A.D. 358. The Calendar dates from the Creation, which is fixed as 3760 years and 3 months before the beginning of the Christian Era; the year is Luni-solar.

The Mohammedan, or era of the Hejira, dates from the day after Mahomet's flight from Mecca, which occurred on the night of July 15, 622 A.D. The months are Lunar.

The Fasli year was derived from a combination of the Hejira and Samvat years by the order of Akbar; it is Luni-solar. The Bengali year seems also to have been related at one time to the Hejira, but the fact of its being Solar made it lose 11 days each year.

The Samvat era dates from 57 B.C., and is Luni-solar. The months are divided into two fortnights—sudi, or bright, and badi, or dark. Each fortnight contains 15 tithis, which furnish the dates of the civil days given in our calendars.

Jamna Mission Allahabad.
At 12 M. I leave with Mr. & Mrs Bembower in their motor-car for Benares. Crossing the pontoon bridge at Dariyaganj we strike the Grand Trunk Road & stick to it for the rest of the trip - a distance of 78 miles. In the L. M. S. house at Jafiganj (41 miles away) we pick up Ernest who had come out that morning from Mirzapur where he had been spending a couple of days with Mr. Evans. We have accidents by the way - 4 blow-outs & 2 tyres - and do not reach Benares till 11:00 P.M. Our hosts, Mr. & Mrs. Cutting, have given us up & retired; but they get up to receive us & give us dinner. We go to bed, very tired.

The ayah takes the children across the river to be with Mrs. Griffin while we are gone.

Benares; at the home of Rev. & Mrs Wm. Cutting of the London Mission.

After chhoti hâzeri, Mr. & Mrs. Bemborner come round in the motor and drive us to the river front. At the Dasaswamedh ghat we take a boat and are rowed up & down the "sacred Ganges" viewing the bathing & burning ghats & the picturesque temples & palaces above them.

Disembarking we climb a steep flight of steps & pass thru many narrow, winding streets (alleys) until we come out into the shank where the motor is waiting for us.

After breakfast we visit the brass bazaar.

After tiffin we motor to Sarnath to see the old Buddhistic ruins.

We have a nice visit with Mr. & Mrs. Cutting in front of the hearth-fire, until bed-time.

Benares until noon; then enroute to Allahabad.

We start out again after chhoti hazeri, visit the Hindu College & the various temples in the city, all of them squalid & filthy & filled with thugs & moochippers & beggars. Betrayed the "godliness" of the city as the Hindus regard it, and its "cleanliness" which is a great gulf fixed.

At 11:45 A.M. we are enroute for home. The motor, having received a new tyre, runs along without mishap. Arriving at Gopiganj at 2:00 P.M. we stop for tea & have tea with Miss Stevens and Miss Truitt in the L.M.S. bungalow.

We reach Allahabad and home at 5:30 P.M.

The children having returned from Mrs. Griffiths for a short time before we are on hand to welcome us. Helen's neck is still much swollen.

● 10h 5m A.M. (Greenwich)

Jamna Mission, Allahabad.

At 7:00 A.M. Mr. & Mrs. Thompson, Ernest & I take a boat at the bridge (a Mr. Faruki invites us to go with him in his private side-wheeler) and go down to the "Sangam", the junction of the rivers, then on around the point & up the Ganges for a short distance to where we disembark & walk back some two miles thru the sands & throngs of pilgrims to the Fort, where the carriage awaits us.
This is the biggest day of the Kumbh Mela. Religious ascetics are there by the ~~thousands~~ & pilgrims & bathers by the hundred thousands some say 2 to 3 ~~x~~ millions. It is a sight, the like of which one would never see elsewhere, & in India only once in 12 yrs.

In the afternoon I drive to the Wanamaker School & teach my Bible Class.

Jamuna Mission Allahabad.

We are busy delivering furniture & household effects to their respective purchasers, and finishing our packing. Progress is interrupted in the afternoon by Moni Mukerji's wedding in St. Paul's church at which I play the hymns & wedding march.

Many callers in the evening.

Our last morning in Allahabad.

Mr. Bembower takes us to the train station in his motor where we board the Mail for Bombay at 12:15 P.M. A large crowd of missionaries and friends sees us off.

We have a comfortable trip. At Jubbulpore station we see Mr. Burgess who very kindly goes to his home while the train stops and gets us some cutlery for use on the trip; unfortunately we forgot & left ours behind at the last moment.

Dividends due at Bank

On board the Bombay mail most of the day.

Arrive at Victoria Terminus, Bombay at 3.00 P.M.

Mr. McAfee meets us. As all the usual retreats for missionaries in the city are filled, we take lodgings at Watson's Hotel where we have a comfortable room and a beautiful view out over the ocean. The sea breeze is delightful.

Ernest sets out at once to attend to his business with Thos. Cook & Son; and the children & I go shopping; they are greatly excited & delighted over the street cars.

As fellow-lodgers in the Hotel we find Mr. & Mrs. Lang and Mrs. Stewart and son of the U. P. Mission, Panjab.

Watson's Hotel, Bombay

Ernest Fuches around and succeeds in finishing his business with Thos. Cook & Son and at the various Consulates before the offices close at 2:00 P.M.

The children & I spend the morning shopping.

In the afternoon we drive out to Malabar Hill-

Watson's Hotel, Bombay

We are kept occupied most of the morning repacking our trunks.

At 4:00 P.M. we leave the Hotel and proceed to the station where we board the Madras Mail at 9:30 P.M. on the trip across country. Sharing our compartment is Rev. Shrimpton & the English Wesleyan missions. The night is hot and I have a sick headache.

Quarter Sessions Week

Madras Mail - En route from Bombay to Arkonam.

A hot weary day: and my headache continues. In the afternoon two ladies & 2 children get into the compartment with loads of baggage: we are dreadfully crowded and uncomfortable.

There is no relief at night: it is atrociously hot and there is not a breath of air stirring.

Easter Law Sittings begin.
Fire Insurances expire

At 7:45 A.M. we arrive in Arkonam where we have time to clean up & have something to eat before leaving at 9:45 A.M. for Katpadi.

Arrive at Katpadi at 11:45 A.M.

Cousin Ida meets us there with her motor & drives us home to Vellore, 4 miles. Aunt Fida & Miss Dodd are waiting to welcome us. We are glad to have finished this first stage of our long journey.

Aunt Fida Scudder has a beautiful home; it is good to be in this lovely quiet spot. Ida takes one in hand and prescribes for my head.

I send a large bale of soiled clothes to the Dhobi.

Vellore, N. Arcot.

I am feeling a little better: write some letters, and have a quiet restful day while Ernest goes on an all-day's motor trip with Ida into the villages. He sees Ida treat 180 patients by the roadside, not only giving medicines, but performing all sorts of operations.

● 4h 34m A.M. (Greenwich)

Vellore, N. Arcot.

Not feeling well today.

We meet Mr. Carmine Scudder who comes in to take his wife home.

Ida drives us around to see the sights of the town, particularly the wonderful old temple, and the site for the new Women's Medical College. We also call on the other missionaries of the station, Dr. & Mrs. Lew Scudder, Mr. & Mrs. Farrar & Mr. & Mrs. Ritsch Rafes.

Big dinner party to meet the other members of the station.

Vellore, N. Arcot.
Hot day. 104°

Ida drives us around to the Fort where we get some exquisite pink lotus blossoms from the moat.

Ernest goes with Mr. & Mrs. Rotschafer on a motor trip out through the Arcot district.

I am feeling desperately tired today.
Ida is trying the Hook-worm test on me.

Vellore, N. Arcot
hot day.

I am feeling too ill to get up today.

Cousin Walter Scudder arrives from Tindavánum on the evening train.

Vellore N. Arcat:

I am still wretched so Ida keeps me in bed all day feeding me up on eggs & milk.

Ida finds that I am a victim of Hookworm

Ernest preaches at the afternoon service.

I put on a kimona & go down to dinner.

hot day.

Because of my indisposition for a couple of days we postpone our departure for one day.

Busy packing all day. Am feeling better but not up to normal yet.

Ida, Walter and Ernest play tennis at the Club.

We stay up late, doing a few odd jobs of packing; Ida brings in a lot of packages with gifts for the children, to be opened "enroute".

9;00 A.M. We leave Vellore. Ida drives us to Katpadi in her motor; Walter also accompanies us to the station.
9;30 We leave for Madras.
Mr. McBean of the Free Church of Scotland Mission shares our 2nd. class compartment.
2:30 P.M. Arrive in Madras.
The children + I with the luggage drive at once to Egmore Station while Ernest sets out to hunt up the American Consul to arrange about our Permit to leave India. He finds the Secretariat has moved to summer quarters in Ooty, without having granted the Permit which had been applied for in Bombay some ten days earlier. The Consul arranges for the Permit by wire.
We have dinner in Egmore Station and leave at 8;30 P.M. for Colombo. The train is booked full and we are given one 1st. class compt. for the night = 2 berths only.

On board S. I. R. train enroute for Colombo.

A long, hot, day.

12:15 P.M. Pass thru Madura; get off train & have breakfast on station. Had expected to spend the afternoon here visiting the wonderful temple etc. but owing to our delay in getting away from Kellore we give up this plan & go through without stopping.

The tropical scenery grows more & more attractive as we approach the point of the peninsula.

Tea at Mandapadam the last station on Indian soil.

5:38 P.M. Arrive at the R.R. terminus Dhanushkodi where a small steamer is waiting to take us across to Ceylon. We are 2 hrs. in crossing; the children are highly excited over it.

Landing at Talaimannar at 8:00 P.M. we board the train for the night trip to Colombo.

We have a 2nd. class compt. to ourselves & have a good night.

☽ 4h 8m A.M. (Greenwich).
Cambridge Easter Term begins

Colombo, Ceylon

Very warm; we do not notice any "spicy breezes".

We drive at once to Miss Bishop's "Missionary Rest House, "Killarney" where we are to lodge until our boat sails. We find the place filled with missionaries waiting for the departure of their respective boats the "Donera" & the "Dilwara" – Dr. & Mrs. Roy & 2 children & Miss Elsie Conklin of the Arcot Mission; Mr. & Mrs. Powell & 2 children of the Welsh Calvanistic mission of Assam; Rev. Kurtz of Hyderabad; Miss Bent of Madras; Miss Crissenberry of Assam.

Ernest goes out at once to attend to his business with Thos. Cook & Son and at the American Consulate.

Toward evening we take a drive along the beach & through the Cinnamon Gardens.

Kandy, Ceylon.

At 7:00 A.M. we take train for Kandy - a delightful trip 7 4 hrs. through wild beautiful tropical scenery up the mountain, thru 11 tunnels to an elevation of 1600 ft.

Arriving at 11:30 we drive at once to "Ardnarée" the Missionary Rest House where we are to lodge over night. After a couple hrs. rest & tea, we go down into the city to see the sights; visit the Museum & the Buddhist Temple, then take jinrikshaws & drive around the lake. The priests in the temple give us souvenirs of some of the offerings of "paddy" which have recently been make in the temple, also a leaf from a Buddhist Bible, written in "Pali".

Kandy is a charming place. We climb up the hillside to Ardnaree for the night; there are a number of other lodgers, among them Mrs. Winser, an American formerly of the American Marathi Mission. Her son, we learn, is investigating & treating "Hookworm in Ceylon" under the Rockefeller Foundation.

Colombo Ceylon.

Br' leaves Kandy at 7:15 A.M. for the return trip; arrive in Colombo about 11:30.

After getting breakfast Ernest goes into the city to finish up his business with Thos. Cook & Son; he also makes a last call on Mr. Leonard the American Consul. He has gotten on very friendly terms with the latter who invites him to lunch and afterwards to play golf with him. E. accepts both invitations and is gone until dinner time.

Miss Linsell and Miss Dent take Helen & Billy down to the beach to play in the sand. A big wave knocks Billy off his feet & might have carried him out to sea had Miss Dent not quickly gone in after him.

Colombo, Ceylon.

We begin to get our things together, as we have heard that the "Dilwara" is in and will be leaving again in the afternoon. At 10:30 word comes that we must be on board at 12:30.

We finish packing, have breakfast and leave "Killarney" at 12:00 o'clock.

On the pier we try to write a few last notes to friends in India; absorbed in this, we do not notice that the launch has left on its last trip to convey passengers from the pier to the "Dilwara"; so we are compelled to take a small row-boat out.

The Steamer does not leave Colombo Harbor till about 4:00 P. M. — a beautiful Sunday afternoon and a calm, blue sea; but there are great swells which cause the Boat to roll considerably; Billy & I succumb in an hour and a half, & take to our bunks.

On board P. & O. Steamship "Dilwara" enroute from Colombo to Hongkong.

We have a six-berthed cabin to ourselves - the largest one in 2nd. class, and are quite comfortable.

I have succumbed to the inevitable - seasickness - and have to stay in bed all day. Billy is able to be about again by evening. Helen, Frances & Ernest have no trouble in holding their own, even tho' the rolling continues.

As fellow passengers in 2nd. class we have Mrs. Stewart, Mr. Stewart, Dr. Anderson, Miss Logan & Miss Lawrence of the U. P. Mission, Panjab; Miss Bent and Miss Crissenberg of the American Baptist Mission in Madras & Assam; Mr. Carter & our own Panjab Mission; & Mrs. Dyson & Rev. Hoding; Mr. & Mrs. Perera (a Ceylonese Y.M.C.A. Secy.) besides Mr. Casal a Swiss gentleman, & ½ doz. Indians.

St. George

On board S.S. "Dilwara"
Colombo - Hongkong
1st. stage; Colombo-Singapore, 1560 miles.

The swells continue and consequently the rolling. With the greatest effort I succeed in dressing & get up on deck about noon, but have to sit quietly in a steamer chair; do not go down for meals.

Food seems plentiful and is fairly good.

Chhoti Hazri - 6:00 A.M.
Breakfast — 8:30 "
Luncheon — 12:30 P.M.
Tea — — 3:30 P.M.
Dinner — — 5:30 "

The meals are served from 1st. class kitchen so we are saved the smells from the cooking.

The stewards & other servants are Portugese & Indian.

On board S. S. Dilwara
Colombo - Hongkong
1st. stage: Colombo-Singapore 1560 miles.

I am better; but the rolling continues; and I have'nt yet gotten my "sea legs".

The Missionaries from 1st. class come over on our deck at 11:00 each morning for a Prayer meeting.

Helen is invited over to 1st. class to tea with Edith Buchanan.

We have music and games in the dining-room after dinner.

St. Mark, Evan.

On board S. S. Dilwara
Colombo - Hongkong
1st. stage: Colombo-Singapore, 1560 miles.

In the early morning we come in sight of the island of Sumatra about right; and we coast along in sight of it for seven hours. It is good to get a glimpse of land again.

In the shelter of this island the swells cease and we roll along smoothly - much to my joy.

The cabin is stuffy and hot during the day in spite of the electric fans. but on deck, altho very limited in promenading space, is cool & breezy.

I have a good deal of headache today. Write up my diary.

We get no news of the outside world. The captain receives wireless messages as to the ship's course but even they are all in code.

We turn our watches 15-6 30 minutes ahead, each day.

O 8h 5m A.M. (Greenwich)

On board S.S. "Dilwara".
Colombo - Hongkong
1st stage; Colombo-Singapore, 1560 miles
A heavy rain during the night makes the atmosphere delightfully cool today.

We are now passing thru the Straits of Malacca, and land is sighted at intervals during the day.

I spend most of the day writing letters & cards, to be mailed in Singapore.

2° now the Equator.

Singapore, Federated Malay States, Settlement of Straits,

The entrance through the channel into Singapore, is exceedingly attractive - green wooded heights on both sides, our ships, which cannon are seen.

At 8:00 A.M. a government officer comes on board to inspect passports. One lady is prevented from landing because she was not dressed in time to show herself in the Boarding Office.

10:00 A.M. The steamer arrives at the dock. We go ashore, and take a tram-car into the city. After mailing letters & post cards, we get into jinrikshaws for a ride about the city; we visit the museum, where we see some very fine specimens, particularly rich & various sorts, insects, & a magnificent display of butterflies.

Luncheon at Raffles Hotel. Mrs. Dixon & family, Mr. Casal Mr. Carter & our family take a long motor drive about the outskirts of Singapore; see some rubber plantations. Back to the boat at 4:30 P.M. Singapore is a very Chinese place. We do not find it so hot as we had expected.

S. S. "Dilwara"
Singapore to Hongkong.

We had expected to arrive in Hongkong by 8:00 A.M. but owing to stiff head-winds for the last two days our progress has been retarded. About 2:00 P.M. a number of sails are seen - the first since we left Singapore - and soon after, land is signalled.

I have had to stay in bed nearly all day with a bad head; but must am up, get up and dress, as we near our destination.

At 3:30 the ship stops while an Officer comes on board to examine passports.

After an hour we move on into the harbour - and arrive at the wharf at 6:30 P.M.

We hear that St. George's Hotel, where we had expected to lodge, is "full up"; so we go to the "Grand Hotel", first crossing by Cook's Steam Launch to the other side of the harbour.

The high hills around the city are imposing & attractive.

Rain during the night.

Grand Hotel - Hongkong.
Rain nearly all day.
After an early breakfast Ernest goes out to interview Thos. Cook & Son & the Toyo-Kisen Kaisha Steamship Co.

I have a headache & stay in bed nearly all morning. About noon I take the children out for a short walk.

Mr. Carter comes round and sits down to lunch with us.

Ernest goes out with Mr. Carter for a walk.

I give a lot of clothes to the laundryman (120 pieces) and wash out some small pieces myself.

Ernest and I, with Billy and Frances take a walk through the Botanical Gardens. Helen stays behind on the Hotel to play with Lilla Richmond.

I order a Shantung silk suit at the Bonton Shop.

Darn large quantities of stockings and socks.

Ascension Day. Proclamation, King George V. Half Quarter Day

Grand Hotel, Hongkong.

We have a little sunshine today.

We pack our trunks & baskets, preparatory to leaving the Hotel for a time.

Ernest goes out with Mr. Tappan to visit the University.

At 9:30 P.M. we take the "Kwong Sai" river boat on the night trip to Canton. We have two good staterooms, go to bed at once and have a comfortable night.

● 1h 1m P.M. (Greenwich)

Canton, China. (Fati)

At 6:30 A.M. we arrive in Canton; we have breakfast on the boat.
At 8:00 A.M. Mr. Henry meets us and escorts us by boat to the Mission Compound in Fati.
Ernest lodges with Mr. & Mrs Henry. the children and I go to the home of Mr. & Mrs. Tom. Noyes.

After resting up a bit, Mr. & Mrs. Noyes take us down into the city to lunch at a Chinese restaurant where we have our first experience with chop-sticks and Chinese food; we have trouble manipulating the chop-sticks, but the food is not bad; indeed we enjoy most of it; the tea is scalding hot + drunk from small, handleless, cups without sugar or milk.

We meet Mrs. Spencer and Mrs. Wells who drop in on tea.
A launch-trip to the College after supper - to hear Mr. Fisher's lecture on the Geography of this Province

Canton China - (Fati)

Mr. Henry and Mr. Howe take us on a sight-seeing trip in the city.

We wander about for miles through the narrow, fascinating streets, poking into little shops of all sorts & seeing most interesting things - the Temples Pagodas Monasteries, the Water-clock, the Fish & Meat Markets the Feather Fan Shops, the Satin-Shoe Shops etc.

We have lunch at a Chinese restaurant; then continue our wanderings, thru Jade-stone street, among the workers in ivory, & into the black-wood furniture shops etc.

Dinner with Mr. & Mrs. Henry.

Our kiddies are having a fine time with the Mission children here - Billy Henry, Richard & Geoffry Noyes and Morris, Mary Louise, Jamie, Arthur & Natalie Henry; also 3 little Fusons and several Berkwalds.

Canton, China. (Fati)

Helen and Billy go to the foreign children's Sunday-School.

I attend part of the Chinese church service.

In the evening we go across the river to the Union church in Shameen, the European quarter. Dr. A. A. Fulton preaches.

Supper with Mr. & Mrs. Henry.

"I cannot say and I will not say
That She is dead — She is just away!
With a cheery smile and a wave of the hand,

She has wandered on to the Unknown Land,
And left us dreaming how very fair
It needs must be, since She lingers There;—

And you, oh you who the wildest yearn
For the old-time step and the glad return,
Think of Her, faring on, as dear
In the love of There as the love of Here.

Helen joins the foreign children's school.

Luncheon with Dr. Griscom at the Hackett Medical College. We go by boat up a crowded, busy canal to the mission place in Lafayette Compound. We meet Dr. Hackett, Dr. Harriette Allyn, Mrs. Thompson, Mrs. Fulton, + Miss Smith.

We call on Dr. + Mrs. A.A. Fulton who live in the same Compound.

Ernest goes on to Canton Christian College to play tennis with Mr. Knipp.

Canton's crowded waterways filled with curious craft of all sorts, is always interesting. The rivers + canals are practically the only means of communication in these parts; there are few roads.

Canton, China. (Fati)

We have ~~dinner~~ Lunch with Mr. + Mrs. Frison (Phebe Mecker)

At 6:30 A.M. we leave the river boat and take up lodgings again in the Grand Hotel.

My first business is to go to the Bon Ton shop, with the trimming (mandarin bands) for my silk suit.

We are considerably disconcerted to learn from Cooks' office that the "Korea Maru" on which we were to have sailed on the 24th, has had to go into dry dock for repairs + won't be able to sail till June 3rd. at the earliest. It is impossible to get through Russia on any earlier steamer. We are trying to get on to Japan to spend the extra time there.

We take a walk and call on Miss Crissenbury + Miss Bent at St. George House.

After tea we get on a tram-car & the Funicular R.R. and ride up to the Peak 1300 ft. Then walk out for a short distance on one of the hill-roads where we get a wonderful view of the Harbor, the City and the Kowloon Peninsula. Beyond the city of Kowloon, the sandy undulations of the peninsula stretch on, to the grim back-ground of rugged mountains which mark the boundary between British & Chinese territory. The Harbor is crowded with steamers, warships & merchantmen, sampans and all manner of small craft. The view from the Peak is a magnificent panorama. The return trip from the Peak we make in 45 min. riding a shady, winding road, well macadamized.

We leave the Hotel at 8:00 A.M. and go to the Victoria Cafe for breakfast.

After stopping at the post office to mail some letters back to India we go on to the pier where we take Cook's launch across the ferry & to board the "Tamba Maru" of the Nippon Yusen Kaisha Line, for Kobe, Japan.

At 11:00 A.M. the boat leaves the wharf & we move out of the beautiful harbor of Hongkong.

The children & I have a comfortable cabin - 2 berths & a sofa. Ernest has a berth in another cabin just across the hall.

The day grows hot; the boat begins to roll a little & I have to take to bed.

S.S. "Tamba Maru" - en route to Kobe, Japan, via Shanghai

Hot day.

We get acquainted with some of our fellow passengers, many of whom boarded the steamer at Durban, So. Africa. This boat is on its return trip from England via the Cape of Good Hope. Just out of Liverpool it sunk a submarine. Among the Americans on board are: Mr. & Mrs. Reeder and daughter Eileen (a business-man of Johannesburg, So. Africa); Miss Blackburn, sister (Kentucky) of the American Consul in Durban; Dr. McCard & family, missionaries of the American Board at Durban.

The food on the boat is excellent, and attractively ~~colored~~ decorated menu-cards suitable for mailing, are provided.

The boat makes its record-run of the trip today - 301 miles. We have 622 miles yet to go, to reach Shanghai.

"S. S. Tamba Maru"
En route to Kobe, Japan.
Via Shanghai.
Distance from Hongkong to Shanghai, 830 miles.

There is a sudden change in the weather; and we are obliged to get out our heavy coats.

The "Tamba Maru" is a remarkably steady boat; but something upsets me; I have a severe headache & stay in bed nearly all day.

I get up in time for dinner — an especially nice meal, as they tell us the dinner preceding the arrival at each port, always is.

Wrote up my diary.

(4h 20m A.M. (Greenwich)

Chilly day. Shanghai.

Early in the day, we reach the mouth of the Yangtsi River but wait for a favorable tide before sailing up to the city.

At 10:30 A.M. we draw up at the Hongkew Wharf (Naomfoong Docks) Shanghai.

George Fitch comes on board to meet us, and takes us to his home, where we meet his wife + three children, Marian, Kempton + Albert.

After lunch George takes Ernest + me for a long motor-ride around the city. Coming back we meet the children at Miss Alice Fitch's, where we have tea.

American Song Service in the Palace Hotel. Rev. Robert Fitch of Hangchow preaches.

We meet there Mr. + Mrs. D. Willard Lyon (Natl Sec. of Y.M.C.A.) and they take us home to supper with them. Miss Lois Lyon is also there. Back to the boat for the night. Frances is feverish + unwell; restless + hot all night.

King George V. born, 1865

Shanghai, China.

Frances is hot and miserable all day.

Ernest stays to watch over her while I take Helen and Billy + go out to Nanyang College (the Gov. Institute of Technology) to have lunch with Eunice Fitz Sheldon. We have an awful time getting out there (owing to our limited(?) knowledge of Chinese + the necessity of changing cars + rickshaws several times) but we have a nice visit after arriving.

Ernest goes out to dinner with Miss Alice Fitch.

Frances seems better toward evening.

Many Chinese peddlars come on board during the day to sell their wares.

S. S. Tamba Maru"
Enroute to Kobe, Japan.
Distance from Shanghai to Kobe, 790 miles.
We leave the wharf at Shanghai at 5:00 A.M.; sail down the river and are soon out in the open sea.

The day is fair but chilly; and the sea, smooth.

I have a bad headache all morning; it eases up a bit by night.

Frances seems better; but she does not care to run about much.

S.S. "Tamba Maru"
Enroute to Kobe, Japan. via the Inland Sea.
Since noon yesterday, we have travelled 299 miles; and we have 412 miles yet to go, to reach Kobe.

The sea is a little rougher today, but the boat is steady. The air is crisp; we need coats.

Frances is still far from well; fever comes on again toward noon, & her sleep is restless.
Helen & Billy play Deck Golf or Hide & Seek, nearly all day.

I shorten a petticoat.
Begin packing, preparatory to landing at Kobe.

S. S. "Tamba Maru".
Enroute from Shanghai to Kobe, Japan.-

We are passing through the Inland Sea today - picturesque & wonderful scenery;

Frances still seems to be a very sick little girl. We call in the Ship Doctor to prescribe for her: The trouble seems to be indigestion.

Our last dinner - on board - a very fine one; I stay in the cabin with Frances and have my dinner - sent up to me.

Kobe, Japan
Osaka, Japan.

Early in the morning the "Tamba Maru" arrives at the N. Y. K. wharf in Kobe. We are roused at 5:30 to appear before the Gov. Doctor, and later, have a long session with the Examiner of Passports.
We have breakfast on board. At 9:30 we leave the boat, get our luggage thru the Customs, then take jinrickshaws for the day. We first go to the R. R. Station & check all our heavy luggage thru to Yokohama; then we ride to the Japan Tourist Bureau, the Hong Kong & Shanghai Bank & the Post Office. We take a long ride down the main shopping street (Motomachi) Lunch at a Japanese restaurant. After lunch we visit Ikuta-jinja, a Shinto temple, where the children feed the turtles & gold fish; and the Nunobiki Waterfalls.
Buy a Formosa hat for Frances. She attracts great attention everywhere.
2:37 P.M. Board train for Osaka, arriving at 4:30. No room in Osaka Hotel, so we take lodgings in a Japanese Hotel, the "Shekandro". A Jap. tea-party in progress in open verandah opposite us, music & dancing.

● 10h 3m P.M. (Greenwich)

Osaka, Japan.

After a simple breakfast at the Shefandeo Hotel, we start out to find and see something of our missionaries & mission work. We make our way to the Wilmina Girls' School, only to learn that all the American teachers are gone for the day. Miss Amagasu, a young Japanese teacher in the school (a graduate of Vassar) receives us, shows us around the school, & offers to show us any of the sights of the city. With her, as guide, we take a long tram-ride out to the sea shore at Hammedera & call on Mrs. John Hail of our Mission. We find she is a friend of the Scudders; the children have a fine time wading, & playing in the sand.

We get back into the city in time to take the 4:30 train for Kyoto, arriving about an hour later.

We take lodgings at the Miyako Hotel, charmingly situated in a garden on a slope high above the city.

Kyoto, Japan. – Miyako Hotel

To attend the Union Church service held in the Theological Hall of the Doshisha University; to meet Dr. Brokaw of our Mission, Mr. & Mrs. Shively (sister & Mrs. Shumaker of India) Mr. & Mrs Grafton of the Y. M. C. A. & Mr. Cobbs. Mr. Cobbs offers to deliver Mrs. Vinn's letter to Mr. Hicks who is living with him. Just after lunch Mr. Hicks comes round to the Hotel to see us and he takes us out on a sight-seeing tour of the principle temples & shrines near by — the "Chion-in"; thro' Maruyama Park a pretty spot celebrated for its cherry & maple trees to the "Yasui" Temple, an attractive old structure with quaint iron lanterns hanging from the eaves, and most beautiful of all, Kiyomizu picturesquely nestled on the brink of a deep ravine. The way to this charming place is up a narrow, winding road (called by foreigners "Teapot Lane") flanked by a score or more of small shops for the sale of nicknacks & various suits, porcelain & pottery. The Nishiotsu Temple; the Big Bell.

Ramadân (Turkish Lent) begins

Kyoto, Japan - Miyako Hotel

We take rickshaws for half a day and visit the Kiyokozan Pottery, the Kin-un-Ken Cloisonné Factory and Yamanaka & Co's Curio House, where is exhibited the most wonderful collection of curios in the world.

Ernest + Helen then go on to the Bank + to a shoe-store, while I take Billy + Frances to Namikawa's toy-store + down Theatre St, a fascinating place with little shops on either side.

After lunch Mr. Hicks comes again + takes us on a round of other shops; O. Komai's Damascene ware, Matsuki's old Prints, Nishimura's Silks + Embroideries, Matsubaya's Second-Hand Kimonos, Daimaruchi's Silks, Kimonos etc.

We buy a few Damascene pins + cuff-links and 3 kimonos.

St. Barnabas, Ap.

On the train enroute to Yokohama.

At 9:24 A.M. we board the train for Yokohama. The train is packed and we have barely seating-space enough for our family. Two bold richly-dressed Chinese women occupy the seats opposite us.

The scenery along the way is charming (a blend of mountain, plain & sea.

Three hours out from Yokohama, Fuji-san (Fuji Mt.) suddenly appears, rising isolated from the plain. It is the loftiest, most beautiful, & most sacred of the Japanese peaks — 12,365 ft. high and covered with snow for 10 mos. of the year. It is indeed a wonderfully beautiful mountain and one can appreciate why the Japanese artists never seem to tire of it.

"No single figure in the Japanese landscape is so often portrayed on the various products of native art and industry as Fuji-san. it is carved on wood, metal, & ivory, & is painted on silks, lacquer, porcelains, fans & a host of fabrics".

The ascent of Mt. Fuji is comparatively easy & during the climbing season, between 15000 & 20000 persons make the ascent.

8:00 P.M. Arrive in Yokohama & take lodgings in Belmont Hotel.

Belmont Hotel
Yokohama, Japan

We have a large comfortable room on the 3rd. floor, in this hotel at 80 Main St. We find rooming next to us, the Hilliams fellow-passengers on the "Tamba Maru".

Ernest goes out to interview Thos. Cook & Co., the Toyo-Kisen Kaisha S.S.Co, and the American Consul.

We go to the R.R. Station & open our trunks, getting out fresh clothes and dozen of soiled garments to send to the washerman.

After lunch we take rickshaws on a ride around the city. We go down Benten-dori where we stop at a stationery shop to buy post cards & place-cards and at Nozawa's to buy a crepe coat-blouse for me and a kimona for Helen. Ernest buys 2 pr. crepe pajamas. We ride out Theatre St. and back through the Public Park.

Tokyo, Japan.

We leave Yokohama by electric car at 9:30 for Tokyo arriving about 45 minutes later. We go first to the local Y.M.C.A. to leave a book for Mr. Davis. We are directed from there to the National Headquarters of the Y.M.C.A. where we hope to meet Mr. Galen Fisher but we find he is out of the city. Mr. Vories of the "One Mustard Seed" is receives us in his office in the same building, helps us to telephone to our Missionaries at the Meiji Gakuin, + sees us on our way to the Mission Compound. After a long st. car ride we reach the place, are received by jimmy Mr. Bailey who takes us over at once to the home of Rev. + Mrs. Reischauer. The latter welcomes us most cordially as "Mr. + Mrs. Winter", and we proceed to consume the lunch she has prepared in the latter. (passengers from the "Tokea Maru" who did not turn up)

Mr. Reischauer takes us out sight-seeing; we see the 2 fine temples in Shiba Park; go thru the fascinating big Jap. dept. store + visit 2 other shops (stationery + travelling) Mr. R. identifies Ernest at the bank where we have some cheques cashed.

Return to Yokohama on 7:30 train.

Yokohama, Japan;
and on board the "Korea Maru"
of the Toyo Kisen Kaisha line, en route to San Francisco, via Honolulu.

We pack our suitcases and at 10:30 leave the Hotel and go direct to the P. K. K.
wharf where we board the "Korea Maru".
We have all 7 cabin 104 and 2 berths in Cabin 106. Both are inside cabins and pretty stuffy in spite of the fans.
Thousands of folks (mostly Japanese) are on the wharf
"to see us off". Later we learn that the Red Cross Commission headed by a Japanese Prince is on board - hence the "send-off".
Promptly at noon the boat sets sail, amidst much cheering & the unfurling of colored paper ribbons.

My cabin-mate is Miss Mayer
of the Methodist Mission, near Poona, India.

Warm day.

Mary telephones me from Cleveland.

I clean the rooms down stairs.

Pack my suit-case for the trip to Cleveland.

Robert & Margaret send us a box of Evergreens from the woods of northern Wisconsin. To decorate the front room with them; the house looks festive & "Christmasy".

Invited a letter to Miss May

Michaelmas Law Sittings end.
St. Thomas, Ap.
Ember Day

Wooster and Cleveland.

We leave on the 11:00 o'clock electric car for Cleveland arriving at 2:00 P.M. Jim meets us and helps us with our luggage. I stop in at the May Co with the children to show them the Christmas decorations and Santa Claus.

As we get off the Euclid Ave. car at Wadena St. we meet Mary; she sends us on to the house while she goes on to the grocery store. Not being able to unlock the door we go over to Mrs. Apt'horp's & visit until Mary's return.

1866 Wadena St.
E. Cleveland, Ohio.

Jim + I attend morning service at the Trinity Episcopal church. We hear a strong patriotic Sermon by Dean Abbot and good music by the boy choir.

Feeling rather played out, I take a long nap in the afternoon.

Cleveland, Ohio.

Mary and I spend practically the whole day down town doing my Christmas shopping for the children! The streets and stores are terribly congested.

Cleveland, Ohio.

A dark, rainy day. I feel pretty much fagged out.

Ernest arrives from New York at 7:00 P.M.

After the children are in bed we decorate the tree & fill the stockings. It is after midnight when we get to bed.

CHRISTMAS DAY. Quarter Day.
(6h 31m A.M. (Greenwich)

Cleveland, Ohio.

A light snow has fallen during the night; so we have a white Christmas much to the childrens' delight. They get us up at 6:00 A.M. when we all go down stairs & chatter about the beautiful illuminated tree to investigate what Santa Claus has left in the stockings. Our kiddies have been very generously remembered and there are many exclamations of delight as the parcels are opened.

Frances McClure shares Christmas dinner with us at 2:00 P.M. The feast and all the "fixins" are perfect. Mary out does herself in having this Christmas a wonderful one for our children. The tree, the dinner - everything is wonderfully fine. Our children's hearts & the time of their young lives, and every body is happy.

St. Stephen, M.
Boxing Day. Bank Holiday

Cleveland, Ohio.

Mary and I go down town to purchase a winter coat which is Ernest's Christmas gift to me. We find one at Keen's - a lovely soft brown with large beaver collar.

Frances McClure meets us at noon and takes us to lunch at Lindner's

I leave my diamond at Sigler's for a new setting.

While we are gone, Amelia Duncan comes over & gets the children & takes them to her house for a Christmas party.

St. John, Evan.

Cleveland, Ohio.

I am feeling fagged again, & stay in bed a good part of the day.

Amelia, Tracy & Belle have dinner with us.

Innocents' Day

Cleveland and Wooster.

We leave Mary's about 8:30 A.M. "loaded to the gunnels". Take the 9:25 car for Wooster. We have a comfortable trip and arrive at Noon. After lugging in a few suppliers, five taken by taxicab home, we find the house very cold; Ernest soon had a good fire going in the furnace; and a little later, to our consternation, we have a flood in the bathroom, which leaks down into the dining-room. A frozen water-pipe has burst.

A lot of Christmas letters and some parcels are awaiting us.

600 E. University St.
Bowling Green, Ohio,

A quiet day. The "flu" ban is still on, so there are no church services.

In the afternoon, Ernest and I walk out to Bloomington and have a nice visit with Pro. Mrs Holtsteen, Wallace & Lillian who we find at home for the Holidays.

Quarter Sessions Week

Worcester, Ohio.

Ernest works all day on his Economics — a book review.

I try to bring some order out of the chaos in the house.

Do a small washing.

Wooster, Ohio.

A dark, rainy day.

Ironing.

Ernest goes down town on a few errands; has his eyes examined by Dr. Wishard.
